

Hamazkayin USA Eastern Region

ARMENIAN MUSIC FESTIVAL

JUNE 25-28, 2026, WASHINGTON, DC

Day Camp, Gala Concert and Student-Artist Joint Concert. All in One Weekend!

- Who: Children and adolescents ages 8–18.
- Skill Level: All skill levels and instruments are welcome. No prior musical experience or instrument is required. Non-instrumentalists can join the choir. Knowledge of Armenian language is not necessary.
- Festival Highlights:
 - Daily workshops and master classes in piano, strings, woodwinds, and choir.
 - Hands-on exploration of traditional Armenian instruments and their rich history.
 - Mentorship from renowned artists, including Zakar Keshishian, Kevork Kechichian, Sevag Avanesyan, and Serouj Kradjian.
- Where: St. Mary Armenian Church, 4125 Fessenden St. NW, Washington, DC 20016 and Soorp Khatch Armenian Apostolic Church, 4906 Flint Dr., Bethesda, MD 209816
- Performance Opportunities:
 - A Gala Concert on Friday, June 26, featuring guest artists.
 - A Student/Artist Joint Concert, allowing participants to perform alongside professionals.
- Registration: Register by April 30 to receive an early bird discount before prices increase on May 1st.

To Register:

<https://forms.gle/PUqko36xwTkYpFGQ9>

REGISTER
YOUR CHILD FOR A WEEKEND
OF JOY IN ARMENIAN
MUSIC!