

ST. MARY ARMENIAN APOSTOLIC CHURCH

Western Armenian at a Crossroads Preserving a Living Heritage

A LECTURE BY

HIS EMINENCE ARCHBISHOP LEVON ZEKIYAN

Join us for an important and timely reflection on the current state of the Western Armenian language, the challenges it faces in the Diaspora, and our shared responsibility in preserving this vital part of our spiritual and cultural heritage.

The evening will also include a brief presentation on the Padus-Araxes Summer Programs.

DATE	TIME	LOCATION
THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 2026	Dinner Reception with Archbishop Levon Zekiyan 6:30-7:30 PM Lecture 7:30 PM	ST. MARY CHURCH 4125 Fessenden St. NW Washington, DC 20016

Guests are warmly invited to join us for dinner and fellowship before the lecture.

All Are Welcome